Concerning the Grading of Exams

The TAs make a strong effort to be as fair as possible in grading exams. I agree with their grading in almost all cases. If you have questions about the grading of questions on your exam,

1. First look at the answers posted on the key. This should help to clarify things.

2. You can also look at the relevant parts of your notes and the text.

3. If you believe that a grading error has been made, present your concern to one of the TAs during office hours or section.

4. If you ask for a question to be re-graded, the entire exam will be re-graded.

5. If you are not satisfied with the results of the re-grading, you can appeal the TA's decision by appending a written note to your exam. The TA will forward the exam to me, and I will make the final decision, which I will then give to the TA to return to you.
